Daily immersion with a host family

Made-to-measure English "made in England"! That is what this personalised immersion programme with private tuition offers. With their personal tutor your child will be able to define their objectives. They will work towards those objectives during their lessons and will practice them instantly throughout their stay on a daily basis in contact with their host family. Living entirely in English 24/7 is the perfect way to make rapid progress both in writing and speaking whilst also boosting their self-confidence.

- + Personalised tuition
- + Continuous and intensive learning
- + Family Life
