• Lessons

30 hours of English tuition delivered by qualified teachers, language sessions take players on an exciting, immersive journey through the world of football, including life as a player, manager, analyst and journalist. Players will practice their skills through real-world activities such as Press conference and media interviews, Football analysis and punditry, Football commenting and Writing news stories and media articles. Maximum 16 students per group.

• Residential accommodation

Private en-suite bedrooms at Manchester University (Wifi available). Full board accommodation (breakfast and dinner at the residence, lunch at Connell College, packed lunches at the weekend).

OUR INTERNATIONAL CENTRE

The football sessions will take place at the City Football Academy where the Junior Manchester City team has their training sessions during the year. The City Football Academy is an outstanding 80 acre training facility in the heart of Manchester City's Etihad Campus. This includes full-size indoor pitch and outdoor academy pitches, as well as a Media Centre. The lessons will take place in Connell College, a modern school with adapted pedagogical equipments, situated only few minutes walking from there.
